There are a number of additional ways that training needs of both Members and Officers may be recognised:

- Following confirmation of appointment
- Formal and informal discussion.

Other circumstances may present the need for training:

- Statutory, legislative and Health & Safety requirements
- Service developments and delivery needs
- Personal development and continuous professional development.

5. Compulsory Training

Where statutory or legislative training needs are identified by the Council, it will be mandatory for Officers to attend and the Council will endeavour to accommodate this within normal working hour. Failure to attend may result in disciplinary action.

Each request will be considered on an individual basis and the benefits to the individual and the organisation will be identified.

Other considerations include the following:

- Implication of employee release for training courses on the operational capability of the council

- Provision and availability of training budget.

For approved courses Members and Officers can expect the following to be sponsored:

training. If the employee takes up employment with another Local Authority this agreement may be waived.

Employees who are given approval to undertake external qualifications are granted the following:

- Study time to attend day-release courses
- Time to sit examinations
- Study time of one day per examination, up to a maximum of three days

9. Short Courses/Workshops/Residential Weekends

- Subsistence in accordance with the Council's current policy.

10. Members Training and Development

Members are responsible for their own personal development and are advised by the clerk after consulting with the Chairman of Policy, Resources and Finance Committee of the range of training opportunities. New Members are particularly encouraged to attend training as part of their induction and existing Members should attend courses as relevant to keep their knowledge up to date.

Training is regularly provided by NALC (National Association of Local Councils), SALC (Somerset Association of Local Councils) and South Somerset District Council. No Member of the Planning Committee is permitted to vote unless they have undertaken the relevant training delivered by South Somerset District Council.

Member training relevant to their role will be paid for by the council and Members must book training through the clerk. If a Member fails to attend training paid for by the council, they may be asked to refund any costs incurred; those costs will be recovered from Members' Allowances.

For training outside Yeovil Town, Members are entitled to claim mileage, accommodation and subsistence expenses in the normal way.

11. Evaluation of Training

Records of all training undertaken by employees will be kept in the personnel files of each Officer. Records will be maintained all training undertaken by Members.

As part of Yeovil Town Council's continuing commitment to training and development, employees are asked to provide feedback on the value and effectiveness of the training they undertake highlighting in particular the key implication of new legislation, guidance and/or best practice of the ongoing efficiency of the authority.

12. Links with other Council Policies

- Equality of opportunities in all aspects of Member and officer development
- Risk Strategy – a commitment to Training and Development greatly assists in achieving good governance and an effective system of Risk Management
- Health and Safety Policy – ongoing training and development is key to ensuring a positive approach to Health and Safety is embedded through the authority.

13. Reporting on Progress

A central record of all Member and officer training will be maintained by the Clerk. A report will be made annually to the Policy, Resources and Finance Committee, detailing attendance at training over the year, as well as the inclusion of Member and Officers evaluation of courses attended.

14. Conclusion

The adoption of this training policy should achieve many benefits for the Council. It will assist in demonstrating that the Council is committed to continuing professional development and enhancing the skills of both Elected Members and Officers.
